THE TIMES AND DEMOCRAT,
Orangeburg, S. C.

THE News and Courier is waiving to keep its courage up.

SOUTH Carolina, Texas and Ohio instructed for Bryan this week. Let the good work go on.

THE Editor of the Augusta Herald is a candidate for the Georgia Senate, and we hope he will be elected by a big majority.

THE discovery that there is one divorce to every twelve marriages in Maine leads the Washington Post to suspect that love doesn't take very deep root in a dry state.

THE Times and Democrat is a radical and it wants a radical like Bryan nominated. A Democratic victory with a candidate like Judge Gray would amount to nothing.

Now it is reported that "razorless shaves" have been perfected. Rufus Rastus Johnson Brown will see to it, says the Washington Herald, that razorless "scraps" are never perfected.

Gov. Johnson's managers say they expect to line up the South for their candidate. That was before the primaries in South Carolina and Texas, both of which States declared for Bryan.

THE directors of the bank at Waycross, Ga., declared themselves one hundred per cent dividends out of the money of the depositors and then the bank failed. The board is now facing a jury.

A CRADLE costing $1,000 has just been imported for a Chicago baby, but a baby in the next block may sleep as well in a 60-cent crib and get to the White House first, says the Birmingham Age Herald.

"CAN'T some one write a tribute to the mule in front of the plow?" asks the Augusta, Ga., Chronicle. We presume so, says the Washington Herald. Certainly it ought to be easier in front of the plow than behind it.

QUITE a number of esteemed contemporaries who are opposed to the nomination of Bryan were repudiated last Monday by the Democracy of their respective counties when they sent instructed delegations to the State Convention to work and vote for the Great Commoner.

THE State Democracy on Monday repudiated The News and Courier's contention that the delegates from this State to the National Democratic convention should not be instructed. At least two-thirds of the delegates to the State Convention will vote to instruct the delegates for Bryan.

We received a circular letter from the Johnson headquarters Thursday in which it was stated that they were perfectly satisfied with the outlook, and that their candidate would certainly be nominated at Denver. They certainly must be possessed with the kind of faith that will remove mountains.

In a kind of "help me Cassius, or I sink" tone The News and Courier is calling on Senator Tillman, Ex-Gov. Heyward, Gen. Willie Jones and Mayor Rhett to defeat the expressed will of the people by asking the State Democratic Convention to refuse to instruct for Bryan. They will hardly do it. The people have spoken, and these gentlemen will bow to their decision.

We have noticed the free Johnson plates in only three papers, one daily and two weeklies. The county in which the daily is published and the county in which one of the weeklies is published both instructed for Bryan last Monday. These papers will not be totting fair if they continue to use these plates as they will be putting the Johnson bureau to the expense of furnishing plates that can possibly do their candidate no good.

PE-RU-NA AS A TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

Mrs. Paul Casavant Writes From 219 Monroe Street, Topeka, Kansas, Concerning Peruna. Read Her Letter Below:

In Spring and Early Summer a Tonic is Needed.

Mrs. Emily Kellogg, 5649 S. Lawrence St., South Tacoma, Wash., Gives Her Experience With Peruna. Read Her Letter Below:

Mrs. Paul Casavant, 219 Monroe street, Topeka, Kansas, writes:
"I have found Peruna very effective in restoring my health and strength after I had been worn out and run down for a long time. I began to use it about six months ago when I was unable to leave my bed. My nervous system was shattered and I was daily losing flesh and strength. This condition was completely altered after a few bottles of Peruna had been used and I kept on using it until I was finally restored to perfect health and had gained about fifteen pounds.
"I feel so grateful for what your medicine has done for me that I am pleased to give it my hearty endorsement and shall always be glad to speak a good word for it."

The source of good blood is fresh air and well-digested food. If anything interferes with digestion the blood becomes impure.
A catarrhal condition of the stomach prevents perfect digestion. Such a condition allows the food to ferment and decompose in various ways, instead of digesting. The blood is thus contaminated with various materials that do not belong in the blood.
This gives rise to spring fever, eruptions on the skin, general lassitude and constipation.
Peruna corrects all these difficulties by striking at the source of them. By eradicating the catarrhal condition of the stomach Peruna at once restores digestion, the blood is thereby purified, and the whole machinery of the body is put in working order.
Peruna has probably made a more remarkable record in cases of catarrh of the stomach than any other medicine. These cases are very frequent, and we have a host of testimonials in which Peruna has received lavish praise for prompt and permanent relief in cases of catarrh of the stomach.

MR. CALEB H. BORTELL.

MRS. EMILY KELLOGG.

Tones up the System.

Mrs. William McRoberts, Waverly, Minn., writes:
"I am perfectly well of the catarrh. I took Peruna and Manalin. I recommend your medicine to every one and cannot praise it enough. It is a fine medicine to take any season of the year. Taken in the spring it tones up the system and acts as a gentle stimulant."

A Good Tonic.

Mr. Joe Leonard, Flat 3, 282 Allen St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes:
"I have good reason to endorse Peruna as I have found it a good tonic, stimulating the system and sustaining it under great pressure, imparting unusual endurance and enabling me to work much longer and harder than the system could possibly do were it not for the great powers with which it endowed me. It gives one nerves of iron."

Mr. Caleb H. Bortell, Police Officer, 212 North Paca street, Baltimore, Md., writes:
"For several years I was troubled with catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. Many times I would vomit before and after eating.
"I took seven bottles of your Peruna, and I am glad to say that it has cured me.
"I feel more like living and working, and am not bothered at all with my old troubles.
"I take great pleasure in recommending Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh, and I thank you for what you have done for me, for none but those who have suffered as I have can appreciate a great cure as I have found Peruna to be."

Splendid for La Grippe.

Mr. Frank H. Fielder, 218 E. 1st St., Ave., Montgomery, Ala., formerly principal of Haynesville High School, writes:
"I can truthfully say that Peruna is a splendid remedy for la grippe, and a good tonic for building up the system."

Pain in Chest.

Mrs. A. W. Gustin, 5209 Lake Ave., St. Joseph, Mo., writes: "When I began taking Peruna I had quite a severe pain and ache in the left of my chest. I suffered a great deal with it.
"I wrote to Dr. Hartman and asked him what I should do. He advised my

Mr. William Hoge, President Commercial Travelers Association, 280 Broadway, New York, N. Y., writes:
"I endorse Peruna as the most effective remedy for catarrh I have been able to find in my travels in this country or Europe. I can truly say that I have spent thousands of dollars in this country alone trying to find a cure, and it was not until I was induced to give Peruna a trial that I obtained anything like permanent relief. As a tonic it is simply great. It ought to be in the grip of every commercial traveler on the road. It cured my wife as well as myself. We have not had the slightest symptom of catarrh for long time."
In a later letter Mr. Hoge says: "I have used Peruna for many years, never without a bottle in my grip. I am the youngest feeling and youngest looking man of my age in New York, which I think is entirely due to Peruna."

taking Peruna, which I did. I took three bottles, and I can say I am cured."

Hay Fever and Catarrh.

Miss Mayme E. Smith, 44 East Mound St., Columbus, Ohio, writes:
"I have used Peruna for catarrh and hay fever. The results being remarkable, I can highly recommend it to all who are suffering with the above diseases. I am happy to be able to say it has helped me wonderfully."

Eyes Red and Watery.

Mr. William S. Hearn, 1033 Segal St., Camden, N. J., writes:
"For about two years I was troubled with my eyes being red and watery, and my general health was very poor.

"Finally a friend advised me to try Peruna. I had tried almost everything else, so I purchased a bottle of Peruna and commenced to take it at once, and before I had finished the first bottle I found I was improving.
"I wrote you for special advice concerning my eyes, which I received. I continued to take the Peruna until I had used six bottles.
"Now my eyes are absolutely well, and I feel like a new man in every way.
"I honestly advise any one similarly afflicted to try Peruna."

Peruna Tablets.
Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one-eighth of a dose of Peruna.

What Watterson Says.

The country is always interested in Mr. Watterson's utterances. He repeated Saturday that there is now no question about it, that Bryan is the nominee. To quote him further: "If the Courier-Journal can get to Bryan, surely the most disaffected ought to be able to reach him without much trouble, in case they be democrats and not republicans. We fought a good fight against him, and we fought it to a finish. We fought it to unite, not to divide, the party, and we fought it whilst there was yet time for parley. We fought it sincerely, openly, frankly, unsparringly. Not until money, mysterious and unexpected, took the field—after the Courier-Journal had pleaded and pleaded in vain for some intelligent, disinterested, popular response—did the newspapers of New York City begin to open their eyes, to sit up and take notice. It is too late. In short and fine, democrats must get down to business and out of the anti-Bryan habit. It is Bryan or nothing. Except that too many fools got to the front, the party might have been saved in 1896. It can be saved now, if too many fools do not get to the rear. There must be a change of parties in the government, else there will never come a change of policies short of revolution, the one-party power, next after the one-man power, being fatal to liberty. In a contest of this sort the ad hominem argument should disappear from the minds of men like dew before the morning sun."

Johnson Has No Chance.

Col. Watterson has deserted Johnson and is now a loyal supporter of Bryan. He has not only deserted Johnson, but he has burnt the bridges behind him. Col. Watterson says Bryan is the man to nominate as the time has passed for "some one else," and with an enthusiasm that has always led Mr. Watterson to follow the democratic standard-bearer he pledges his support to the Nebraska. Mr. Watterson recalls his effort to place before the people "some one else," and reviewing the withdrawal of all the talked-of candidates, he says, "Why, then right out of the mouth of Wall street, came a stentorian voice, 'Johnson.'" Of Johnson's chances Mr. Watterson has this to say:

"What chance would Johnson have over the dead body of Bryan? What chance would Johnson have carrying a Wall street tag? What chance would Johnson have using the undemocratic two thirds rule to defeat the will of the majority, and that at the behest of the east defying the west and working the south? The thought is preposterous." Continuing his diagnosis of the national situation and reverting back to the original fact that the great majority of democrats want Bryan, Mr. Watterson continues: "The time has passed for 'some one else,' Mr. Bryan retained the field; it is too late for 'some one else,' the conditions what they are; and I confess that I am in sympathy with Mr. Bryan in refusing to be ruled off the track by a group of New York newspapers, whose motives are, to say the least of them, suspicious, which will support no ticket except one framed by themselves, and which do not agree with one another touching the ticket to be named. What ever his claims may be, or may not be, Mr. Bryan has his rights and no thoughtful man elected, the ipse dixit equally of the unthinking, the interested, and the prejudiced to the contrary being of no weight whatever. In American politics anything is possible. Assuredly Mr. Bryan may be elected; as an affair of dinner-pails, if empty, he will be."

Wants to Eat 'Em Alive.

Senator Jeff Davis, closing his fire-eating speech in the Senate, the other day, said,
Go, damnable imps of pelf and greed. I defy your taunts! Tear to fragments my political career. Lash my poor form into insensibility. Gnaw from my stiffening bones every vestige of quivering flesh. Howl in wretched bestiality through my own innocent blood as it drips from your fiendish visages. Only God can stay my voice in behalf of organized united labor and the yeomanry of America. This exhortation was directed at the magnates, who "have robbed us of billions—billions, sir, I repeat. Methuselah could not have counted it by dollars in twice his lifetime, Adam, indeed, had he survived till this day and had computed a thousand dollars every minute since his expulsion from Paradise, must have lived 50,000 other years to have completed the task."

Having thus demolished the trust magnates the eat-'em-alive Senator reached for the scalps of the trust editors, big and little. Hear him: "Diminutive editors in paroxysms of frenzy, grimaced and gesticulated as though there had been committed an unpardonable sin against the Holy Ghost. Puniest of creatures, misnamed man, pressed trousers and all, slinking carvens at the golden feet of Mammon, frothed madly upon seeing my words, their little, weak bodies trembled, the limbs twitched and jerked as in spasms; the eyeballs rolled nervously and the eyes emitted a greenish light, while the poor, brainless creatures enarled and snapped aimlessly, as do ordinary dogs, as it is said, affected with hybriphobia. Such seems to have been the first effects upon a plutocratic press."

As we do not flock with the plutocratic the Senator's remarks does not touch us, but really exhibitions as he made of himself does no good.

Bryan Will Be Elected.

The Augusta Herald says the Hon. Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, has just returned from a visit to the North. As the national democratic committee for Georgia, the editor of the leading morning paper in the state, ex-president of the state senate and one of the best informed men in Georgia it was natural that he should be asked for an expression of his views on the national political situation. In speaking of the probable nomination of Mr. Taft and the expected nomination of Mr. Bryan, Mr. Howell expressed himself as being confident that the Democrats would win should these two gentlemen be pitted against each other. Mr. Howell's view, that Mr. Bryan will beat Mr. Taft, if these two men become the candidates of their respective parties, is shared by many well informed men.

"AN exchange observes that Delaware has Gray for a candidate and Georgia has Brown. And the fellow who believes that either of them has the ghost of a chance of being elected is green" says the Augusta Herald.
